

ARNS VIRTUAL CONFERENCE
Friday 9th July 2021

0845-0900	ARNS AGM
0901-0909	Opening remarks - Alison Hughes, ARNS Chair
0910-0940	Sponsored symposium Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd What's next for Respiratory Services Ibrahim Amin, Lead Clinical Pharmacist, Tower Family Healthcare Sam Prigmore, Nurse Consultant Laura Rush, respiratory specialist practice nurse Maria Buxton Consultant Respiratory Physiotherapist & Service Lead A expert panel discussion on "What's next for Respiratory Service" discussing both Primary & Secondary care Respiratory Services, supported by a Clinical Pharmacist and Consultant Respiratory Physiotherapist. The expert panel discussion will discuss what's next for Respiratory annual reviews, the blended approach to face to face and virtual consultation, spirometry and pulmonary rehab for Respiratory patients, focusing on COPD.	Sponsored symposium GSK Resetting the focus for COPD consultations in the 'new' post COVID-19 world Frances Barrett, Respiratory Nurse Specialist & Trainer This will be an informative session on how specialist nurses can support their primary care colleagues to tackle the anticipated COPD patient review backlog - ensuring the most at risk patients are prioritised. The session will also include lessons learnt from the COVID pandemic and how these can be applied to COPD pathways to optimally manage this patient group.
0941-1015	Session 1 Chair - Karen Heslop – Marshall and Nicola Roberts Vaccination programme – Sue Harriman, Chief Executive, Solent NHS Trust
1015-1045	Refreshments, Exhibition, Networking and Poster Viewing
1045-1145	Session 2 Chair – Iain Wheatley & Louise Lomas Spirometry – where do we go now? 1. The accreditation process- ARTP – Julie Lloyd, Service Lead for	Session 3 Chair- Emma Rickards & Sara Mason, Oxygen Lead Respiratory Response to the Pandemic Post COVID supportive discharge -

Association of Respiratory
Nurse Specialists

	Lung Function & Sleep (Good Hope) and Honorary ARTP chair 2. Spirometry training - who and how? - Chris Loveridge, Respiratory Nurse Specialist 3. The developments within primary care – Carol Stonham, Respiratory Nurse, NHSE SW Respiratory Network Leadership Team & NHS Gloucestershire CCG Panel Q&A	Sally Bustin, Respiratory Clinical Nurse Specialist, Frimley Health NHS Foundation Trust COVID Virtual Ward - Matt Inada-Kim Covid Pulse Oximetry in the community - Caroline O’Keeffe Long Covid – Rachel Moses Panel Q&A
1146-1216	Sponsored symposium NuvoAir Respiratory Care Revolutionised Helen Parrott, Clinical Lead NuvoAir's digital respiratory care platform has been designed to enable people with long term respiratory conditions to better manage their health in collaboration with their healthcare team. This symposium will explore the components of self management in respiratory care and how health data collected remotely can transform the way care is delivered and improve the experience for both patients and clinicians.	Sponsored symposium Chiesi Inhalers and the Environment Jane Scullion – Consultant Respiratory Nurse This session will cover the effect of climate change on the environment, what impact inhalers have in terms of the environment and will explore the importance of choice and patient safety when choosing an inhaler.
1216-1250	Lunch, Exhibition, Networking and Poster Viewing

Association of Respiratory
Nurse Specialists

1250-1345	Session 4 Chair – Beverly Bostock-Cox and Kerry Woodward Severe Asthma – Enhanced Access collaborative Severe asthma and biologic therapy – from primary care to tertiary care - Natalie Harper, Respiratory Consultant Nurse, Dorset County Hospital and Mariana Fernades, Asthma Clinical Nurse Specialist, Guy’s Hospital. The Use of FeNO in the Diagnosis and Management of Asthma – Karen Frankland, Lead Nurse for Education and Clinical Support, Circassia.	Session 5 Chair - Kerry Mills and Yvonne MacNicol Unusual presentations and innovations Asbestos related lung cancer- Maria Parsonage Upper Airways, Complex Breathlessness and Induced laryngeal Obstruction - Rachel Daly, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Manchester University NHS Foundation Trust Nursing Times 2020 winner Yellow Lanyard – Gloucestershire Hospital - Emilie Kerslake
1346-1421	Session 6 Chair - Karen Heslop-Marshall and Kate Lippiett Abstracts and Audit presentations Audit results - COPD diagnosis & management in Primary Care – Erica Haines and Ruth Thomas, Respiratory Nurse Specialist, Whaddon Healthcare Improving medication adherence in severe asthma: the development of a specialist adherence clinic – Claire Boddy, University Hospitals Of Leicester NHS Trust The research capability and capacity of UK respiratory nurses: A training needs analysis – Emma Ray, Respiratory Nurse Specialist and Research Fellow, University of Southampton
1422-1452	Session 7 Chair – Sarah Kearney and Ruth Thomas Pulmonary rehab, face-to-face or virtual – which is the best approach? A lively debate! Chris Swindale Elaine Bevan Smith
1453-1518	Session 8 – Chair Joanne King and Debbie Roots Patient Experience to the Pandemic Mhairi Gowans Ann Moses

*Subject to change

	John Allen Susannah Thompson
1519-1549	Session 9 – Chair - Alison Hughes The potential of Respiratory Nursing Claire Adams – Respiratory Clinical Network Lead for Primary Care, North East and North Cumbria.
1549-1555	Closing remarks – Alison Hughes, ARNS Chair

Thank you to our conference sponsors who have provided sponsorship towards the platform, equipment, and speaker costs of this meeting, but have had no input into or influence over the agenda or content or selection of speakers, with the exception of the sponsored symposia, for which the sponsoring companies are fully responsible.